

BEAUTY RESOLUTION NO.27

Who wants to be an Easter bunny?

This Easter you could go for an egg, or go for a bunny. That's right chocoholics get a grip of yourself, step over the mound of eggs and get yourself down to Superdrug for the launch of Playboy.

Playboy will debut with true glamour girl style in Superdrug at the beginning of April, offering glosses, lipsticks, body powders and, well, everything you need in order to transform yourself into the epitome of Bunny beauty. Everything but the tail. Modern bunny girl has attitude, not a fluffy tail.
