

A TO Z OF SUMMER....

O is for... "oh my goodness, is that the sun?"

We all know what we should do when the sun appears. But hands up those whose good intentions flew out of the window when the sun finally got around to shining.

Surely I cannot be the only one who's nursing slightly pink shoulders this morning? Next time I will up the factor to 40+. In the meantime I will slather on a cooling after-sun and relax.

This Solait tan prolonging after sun will cool and moisturise the skin as well as help my shoulders tan – hurrah for the glory of Superdrug's sun scientists (£4.49).
