

This Christmas GOSH is introducing its first ever beauty gift sets into Superdrug stores across the country. Since its launch in spring 2006, GOSH has quickly become one of the best loved cosmetic brands in the UK. Beauty lovers adore its dedication to colour, new formulations, vibrancy, seasonal colours and limited edition lines.

Now the cosmetic geniuses at GOSH have created seven glamorous gift boxes; each including this season's must-have cosmetics.

Everything in the range is included in Superdrug's Christmas gift promotion (buy three gifts and get the least expensive free), and best of all, cost far less than buying all the pieces individually – for example the Get the look gift box (items pictured above) sees a saving over £16 on the normal selling price.
